

B. C. S. Bulletin To Old Boys

VOL. XI NO. 2

COMPILER: H.L.HALL, M.A.

March, 1952.

---

We still haven't reached our goal, set three years ago, of 500 Annual Members and it's come to a pretty pass when we find that in Chapel and at Morning Prayers our thoughts wander to membership in the Association! For example, one Sunday recently, the Service opened with Hymn 338---(Heavens, our membership hasn't dropped to that, has it!) Psalm 23 was duly sung----(well, I, know we have more Life Members than that.....wonder when we are going to have Psalm 150 again)... Then came the Sermon---(A dandy one, all about people putting off doing things....forgetting to mail letters with $3.00 annual fees or $100.00 for Life membership, to.: J. CHURCHILL-SMITH, ESQ., 132 ST. JAMES ST., MONTREAL, P.Q.) Another Hymn "When I Survey;----" (And there we are wandering.....when I survey the mounting costs and realize that less than half those who receive the Bulletin shoulder the burden of expenses of the Association.....). Prayers follow--- (And I can't help thinking of the Headmaster's words in his message in the November issue: "B.C.S. is your School: by its very being it has added to your well-being; the least you owe it is your loyalty and support. Naturally, these can be best given through the Old Boys' Association"). As soon as the first line of the next Hymn was announced, "Rejoice, and Again I Say Rejoice", it was discovered that an error had been made --- and we sang in its stead, "A Few More Years Shall Roll". (Now, wasn't that a coincidence!) And I knew the final Hymn couldn't possibly be, "O Wondrous News", or "All Glory Laud and Honour", and it wasn't: it was, "Lord, Oh Lord How Long-----".

The example of Brig. G. V. Whitehead ('08-'14) and his son E. A. Whitehead ('42 - '49), becoming Life-Members in 1949 has been followed recently by Brig. J. H. Price, ('09 - '15) and his son, T. E. Price ('44 - '48). We commend most highly this Father - Son expression of loyalty to the Association and the School, and hope that the example set by them may be an inspiration to others.

(In former Bulletins, we have pointed out the many advantages of becoming a Life-Member---the most important of which is that a member by paying just $100.00 once, saves something like 40 2/3 years' annual fees. And in the case of Father-Son Life-Membership, well, all the benefits previously mentioned are automatically doubled---which naturally leads one to ponder the savings in the case of Grandfather-Son-Grandson Life-Membership!).

The fiscal year of the Association begins and ends on the 31st October, but if names of Members are to be entered in the School Magazine, annual fees must be received prior to the 1st May each year. Fees are now payable for the current year 1952. Any change of address should likewise be sent to the Association Secretary. The School Magazine is edited by R. L. Evans, M.A., and the staff of boys working under him.

We hope the reading of the Historical Facts contained in this issue of the Bulletin will enhance the appreciation that Old Boys -- Old and Young -- already have for their School. The numerous facts have been collected from many and varied sources, especially the School Magazines edited by the former editor, R. L. Young, M.A., and chiefly his 1932 June issue.

The complete set of School Magazines edited by R. L. Young, M.A., (B.C.S. Master '21 - '49), and donated to the School by him upon his retirement, has been bound in purple cloth with white leather backing and has been placed in the Peter Holt Memorial Library. The value of these Magazines ---covering a period of 28 years in the School's history---is incalculable, and as a source of interest and reference invaluable. Our thanks and appreciation to Mr. Young for his time and efforts devoted to their compilation. The Library would not be complete without them.

The Prep School acknowledges with thanks the half dozen pictures presented by W. Doheny ('30-'38) dating from his days in the Prep. Old Boys who would be willing to follow his example in sending pictures, prior to Mr. Page's régime, should send them to Mr. Whitlow who will gratefully acknowledge them and see that they are hung in the Prep. Pictures of Mr. Tyson Williams' and Mr. Wilkinson's regimes would be most welcome.

The Members of the Staff wish to thank all Old Boys for their kind remembrances at Christmas and reciprocate most warmly the wishes contained in their cards.

The Annual Meeting and Dinner of the Association took place at the Montreal Club, 215 St. James St. Montreal, on February 21st. The following Old Boys were nominated directors of the Association for the ensuing year: President: G. H. MacDougall ('24-'30); Secretary-Treasurer: J. Churchill-Smith ('35-'39); Committee Members: J. Cross ('27-'35), J. Baillie ('33-'34), H. Langston ('27-'32), D. Johnston ('21-'27), M. Magor ('45-'47), J. Gray ('45-'48), G. Hall ('16-'26), P. Aird ('41-'44).

Almost 100 Old Boys were present at the Dinner. The Chairman, G. H. MacDougall ('24-'30), voiced the regrets of the Association upon the deaths during the past year of the former Honorary-President of the Association, G. H. Montgomery, Esq., ('86-'89), and the immediate former Honorary-President, P. F. Sise, Esq., ('92-'96). Announcement was made of the election of the Hon. Mr. Justice C. G. MacKinnon, ('92-'96), as the new Honorary-President. Regrets from the Right Rev. Lennox Williams ('72-'76), the oldest living Old Boy, Dr. S. P. Smith and Col. C. G. M. Grier, former Headmasters, at their inability to be present at the Dinner were expressed by the Chairman. The Guest of Honour was G. M. Wiggett ('07-'08) who proposed the toast to the School which was replied to by the Headmaster, C. L. O. Glass, Esq., ('28-'32). Mr. Donald C. Jolly ('96-'99), Chief Engineer, Kelly Systems Inc., Chicago, who wrote the letter included in the November issue of the Bulletin and which was so greatly appreciated by all Old Boys and who made the trip specially from the U.S.A. to be present at the Dinner, was Guest of the Association as was J. G. Patriquin, Esq. M.A., Housemaster of Williams House and member of the School Staff since 1929. The Chairman the Headmaster and the Honorary-President all paid tribute to Gerry Wiggett's achievements in the realm of hockey to the value he placed on true sportsmanship, and to the great debt that B.C.S. owed Gerry who in 1926 coached his first School team and who since 1931 has coached successive teams. As a mark of esteem in which he is held by the whole Association, he was made a Life-Member, and the Honorary-President presented him with a School blazer with gold crest and buttons as a token of gratitude on the part of the members of the Association. Numerous telegrams from former captains expressing regrets at not being present but offering Gerry best wishes were read by the Chairman. In thanking the members of the Association, Gerry referred to the co-operation he always received, not only from the boys of the teams but from the Headmaster and members of the Staff and made special reference to the efforts and time devoted by J. G. Patriquin in fostering and developing this sport among the boys of the School. Mr. Justice MacKinnon thanked the members for the honour extended in electing him Honorary-President and stated that living is a game we all have to play and praised the School for the training it provided for this game of life. He concluded by extolling the value of sportsmanship and thanked Gerry for the example he had set to so many boys through the years. The Headmaster, thanking Gerry Wiggett and J. G. Patriquin for their many contributions during the years to B.C.S., developed his address under the headings: Games, Religion, Work, and pointed out that the School tried to inculcate the necessity of hard work and to instil in boys the idea of a devotion to a Being larger and greater than themselves, so that when they leave school they may have some idea of service they can try to render to our way of living. Mr. Jolly, in thanking the Association for the kindness extended him, emphasized the value of moral qualities in nations as in individuals and stated that thinking Americans were aware that Canada's political, social and moral life was far superior to that of the U.S.A. He reminded members of the value of such schools as B.C.S. and paid tribute to men such as Gerry Wiggett who placed sportsmanship first in the list of values to be derived from games.

Seated at the Head Table were: Mr. Justice C. G. MacKinnon; Mr. Justice W. Mitchell, Chairman of the Board of School Directors; G. H. MacDougall; the Headmaster; H. W. Davis; H. C. MacDougall; R. R. McLernon; T. H. P. Molson; W. W. Ogilvie; G. M. Wiggett; D. C. Jolly.

INTERESTING HISTORICAL FACTS PERTAINING TO THE SCHOOL

The Rev. Lucius Doolittle, the founder, of the School in 1836, was, at one time a country clerk in a general store. Being imbued with missionary zeal, he became enrolled in the University of Vermont where he conceived the idea of founding an institution for the special benefit of the Province of Quebec. By 1836, he had become vicar of Lennoxville and Sherbrooke. (A memorial tablet to his memory may be seen in St. George's Church, Lennoxville).

Though the Rev. Lucius Doolittle was the founder of the School in 1836, yet the first master was a Mr. de Beaumont, a man of literary and poetical tastes. He was succeeded by Mr. W. Wallace who, in turn, was succeeded by the Rev. George Milne.

In 1842, Doolittle handed the School over to Edward Chapman, M.A., formerly an assistant in Dr. Lundy's Classical School in Quebec. The break-up of this School sent Dr. Lundy to McGill as its first principal and Mr. Chapman to Lennoxville.

Lieut. Col. Forsyth, speaking at the Bishop's College and School annual dinner on January 4th, 1887 said: "Only five or six Lundy boys came with Mr. Chapman to Lennoxville. More would undoubtedly have come, but the expense and inconvenience of getting there in winter was very great. It took me three days to drive there, that was in July, 1843".

Chapman's School opened on May 2, 1842 in the second storey of a building erected by the Rev. L. Doolittle. From an Old Boy's letter, dated June 7 1895, appears the following: "The building situated on the village square to the west of St. George's Church was of red brick; its outside dimensions were about 30 by 45 feet. The first storey contained the stare rooms chiefly; the second, Chapman's study and library as well as the school rooms -- one for classics and one for mathematics -- and the roof part, popularly called "The Steamboat" was fitted up for a dormitory. There were no bedsteads at all, only board berths and the boys lay alongside feet to head with only an inch board between. Light and ventilation came from the two ends of the 'steamer'".

In 1845, the College took over the School and Chapman became the College Bursar. Prof. H. H. Miles became the first headmaster under the new régime. In 1854 the College regarding it as too great a liability, closed the doors of the School. The interregnum was a brief one. In 1857, the School, revived and re-organized, opened its doors again as a "Junior Department and Grammar School of the College". Its Headmaster -- or Rector -- was the Rev. James Williams of Pembroke College Oxford, afterwards Lord Bishop of Quebec. Great prosperity followed his appointment. The following letter dated June 4, 1895, from an Old Boy who joined the School in October 1857, states: "Mr. Williams came out in August 1857 opened his School in September with 8 boys enrolled. My brother and I joined the School in October when there were now 17 boys and before the end of term there were 29. Our chief games were cricket, and in autumn 'shinney'. A rink in the valley near the parish school room was the scene and source of great delight in winter to us and to many of the Sherbrooke skaters -- in those days the best skaters in Canada. In those days too, Lennoxville boasted one of the best bands outside the City -- for many years trained by the celebrated Schiller, long in the 23rd Regiment Band."

The old School offered but little boarding accommodation. The advent to Lennoxville of Captain Rawson and his example of offering boarding accommodation to boys served a purpose longed for by parents. "We were simply packed in the old building" writes an Old Boy of that period. Arrangements were made with families in the village to take in boys as boarders. In 1859, an appeal, signed by J. H. Nicolls, H. H. Miles, J. H. Thompson, J. W. Williams and E. Chapman, and dated June 21 was made to "The Friends of Public Education" to subscribe funds for a new building. The appeal was successful, and in 1861 the cornerstone of the new School was laid by General Sir Fenwick Williams of Kars. By September, this building, adjacent to the College lecture halls was ready and with its occupation the first move from the village proper was made.

(Port Williams, near Grand Pré, Nova Scotia, is named in honour of General Sir Fenwick Williams. He was a native of Annapolis Royal, N.S., and had distinguished himself in the British Expeditionary Forces in Turkey. He later won additional fame as the defender of Kars in the Crimean Peninsula, and at the close of the campaign was created General Sir Fenwick Williams of Kars.)

At the close of the Civil War in the U.S.A. a long and friendly connection was established with the South. The former President of the Confederate States came to Lennoxville to live, and his young son Jefferson Davis; was enrolled in Form 1 of the School in 1866-67.

The course of study for the Sixth Form in 1859 was as follows: English: Composition and Elocution; History: Greek; Algebra and Arithmetic: Review of elementary principles; Euclid, Trigonometry and Natural Philosophy: Euclid Books IV-VI, Plane Trigonometry; Latin: Cicero, Virgil, Sallust and Composition; Greek: Euripides, Homer, Xenophon and Composition; Scripture: Historical background of Old Testament and Part of New Testament in Greek; Geography: Ancient and Modern; French: Continuation of courses taught throughout the School; Writing: Every afternoon in all classes; Book-keeping and Commercial Arithmetic instead of Latin or Greek, if desired.

The School Calendar for 1866 has the following: Board etc., $3.00 per week; washing 25 cents per week; tuition, including French and Drill $63.00 per annum; pew rent in St. George's Church $1.00 per annum; use of playgrounds $1.00 per annum; German or Italian $10.00 per annum; resident boys are expected to bring their own bedding and towels, or, if it be preferred, they may commute this for an entrance fee of $15.00; drawing $10.00 per annum; singing $13.00 per annum. Meal hours were: Breakfast at 8, Dinner at 1, Tea at 6, and Supper at 9. All boys during their hours of play were free to go at pleasure over the country, so long as they did not go within one mile of the town of Sherbrooke, or into any bar-room or tavern, or lounge about the village. Boys were fined $1.00 for wilful damage to furniture and were forbidden to carry rifles and hatchets into the dormitories.

As in 1849, so in 1868, boys were requested to bring a spoon and fork but they were to be silver ones, marked with their own name or initials and for their own use!

In 1874 a fire laid the School in ashes. The boys were billeted in private families and the gymnasium was used as a schoolroom. The new building, built from designs furnished by McDougall and Darling, Toronto, was occupied in 1875. School fees for that year were raised from $220.00 to $240.00 in view of the increased cost of living which then obtained in the country!

In the Calendar of 1882 for the University of Bishop's College, there appears the following: "Bishop's College School is subject to the control of the Corporation. The Rector of the School, who shall also be a Professor in the College, shall be appointed by the Corporation".

In 1883 the Rev. J. A. Lobley, M.A., D.C.L., became Principal and Rector. The duties proved too onerous and his health giving way under the strain, he resigned in 1885 and was succeeded by the Rev. T. Adams, M.A., D.C.L. Dr. Adams worked arduously. The Montreal Witness, dated June 28, 1888, reports F. C. Emberson, M.A., as saying, "The School was never in better order. The boys are most gentlemanly fellows. A contented, healthy tone pervades the School. The examinations have been most satisfactory." The Quebec Morning Chronicle of Saturday, June 30, 1888, reports G. Stewart, D.C.L., F.R.S.C. as saying: "The School is conducted on the best principles of an English Public School. The boys are taught manliness and self-reliance and the lads seem to 'get on' in life wherever they may be. So far as position, salubrity and scenery are concerned, no better place for School and College could be found than Lennoxville." Adams was rewarded with one of the largest enrolments in the School's history to that date: 78 from P.Q., 4 from Ontario, 19 from N.B., 7 from N.S., 1 from P.E.I., 6 from U.S.A., 1 from the West Indies. Owing to the great stress of work devolving on the Principal, the original plan of School government was reverted to in 1892. H. J. H. Petry, M.A., an Old Boy of the School, was appointed to the headmastership while Dr. Adams retaining the chaplaincy of the School and becoming a shareholder and director of the School Association, confined himself solely to the principalship for the College. Under Mr. Petry, the School was uniformly full, and material prosperity was the rule rather than the exception. (Dr. Adams was born at Paramatta, New South Wales, in 1847. He was the nephew of the famous Dr. J. C. Adams, F.R.S., discoverer of the Planet Neptune).

The 1893-94 Calendar requested boys to have a dozen table napkins with a ring, and each boy had to have an extra brush and comb "which he may keep in his locker for use during the day".

Lt. Col. G. H. Baker ('89 - '93), 5th Canadian Mounted Rifles, was the only member of the Canadian Parliament who lost his life in the 1st World War. The Memorial erected in his memory may be seen in the Ball of Fame, House of Commons, at Ottawa.

In May 1899, J. D. Edgar, an Old Boy, the then Speaker of the House of Commons, Ottawa, was knighted.

In May 1899, Capt. H. C. Smith, an Old Boy, of the Dublin Fusiliers, was decorated for conspicuous bravery at the Battle of Omdurman. Later, the same year, he was appointed Staff Officer to Lord Roberts.

On June 28 1900, Mr. Petry referred to the large number of boys who were at the front in the Boer War. Major Heneker, son of Chancellor Heneker of the College, was referred to for having done such meritorious work in West Africa.

In 1901, the School Cadet Corps formed a Guard of Honour for the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and York, later King George V and Queen Mary, when they visited Sherbrooke during their tour of Canada.

In 1903 Mr. Petry resigned and after severe competition among 43 applicants, of whom only six were from Canada, the Rev. E. J. Bidwell, M.A., Headmaster of the Cathedral Grammar School, Peterborough, England, was chosen Headmaster of the School. (His son, Rear-Admiral R. E. S. Bidwell, C.B.E., '08-'10, has had a distinguished career in the Canadian Navy). At the beginning of that year numbers had dropped to 57 and the whole staff but one was new. In 1904, a Preparatory School was organized with J. Tyson Williams, B.A., one of the new members of the staff, as its first headmaster. Towards the end of Dr. Bidwell's régime the question of the relationship of School and College again became acute, and in 1908, after a lapse of 64 years, the School became once more an independent institution. Upon Dr. Bidwell's elevation to the Episcopacy in 1909, the Rev. J. Standfast was appointed Headmaster but was soon succeeded by J. Tyson Williams in 1910.

By 1916, Commander J. K. L. Ross had decided on a drastic change. In the course of the year he made a dramatic purchase of large tracts of land across the St. Francis River, and the cornerstone for a block of new buildings was laid by the Governor-General, the Duke of Devonshire. In 1918, the Prep School under A. Wilkinson, Esq., occupied the new buildings but the Upper School under S. P. Smith, M.A., D.C.L., who had become Headmaster in 1920, remained in the old buildings until 1922. It was soon discovered that the School faced a financial disaster of great magnitude. The spirit and speed with which a certain number of Old Boys acted should never be forgotten and the zeal which the Headmaster, Dr. Smith, applied in lessening and then overcoming the difficulties--methods which would qualify him "cum laude" as a war-time finance minister in any cabinet -- can only be fully appreciated by those who know the conditions under which he laboured. That the School weathered these storms, increased its numbers and improved its scholastic standing, ' was due largely to a man who, in working incessantly in the best interests of the School, applied sound, practical common-sense methods, showed exceptional knowledge of a wide variety of subjects -- the classics, mathematics, chemistry, architecture, forestry---and matched thoroughness and attention to detail with a degree of integrity that commanded the respect of all.

Upon Dr. Smith's resignation in 1931, C. G. M. Grier, Esq., M.A., Oxford, was appointed Headmaster and remained in office for almost nineteen years, the longest tenure of our headmasters to date. The greatness to which he raised the School has been recorded in recent issues of the Magazine, notably the January 1950 issue for which the former Chairman of the Board of School Directors,, Col. W. W. Ogilvie, wrote a special tribute. In 1950, C. L. O. Glass, Esq., M.A., Oxford, an Old Boy of the School, and a former Rhodes Scholar who saw active service in the last war in the Canadian Navy, was appointed the School's twenty-first Headmaster.

ITEMS OF NEWS: We were pleased to receive a letter from G. M. Stearns ('17-'19) giving us the address of Hugh D. Cann ('16-'18).

We were pleased to receive a letter from H. D. Cann ('16-'18) in which he writes: "Many thanks for your letter of Dec. 10th; enclosing The Bulletin. I have been out of touch for a good many years with the Old School, in fact, as Max Stearns has no doubt told you, I was going out of Montreal the other evening, and following a whim, I took a chance and called Max at Megantic. I think it had been thirty three years since I had heard his voice, and I did not know where he was living, whether in Megantic or not. Consequently, while we did not see one another face to face, it was nevertheless very good to talk to him again. I entered B.C.S. in 1916 going into the Fifth Form, and left in 1918. I was back at an Old Boys' gathering, I think in 1919 and that is the last time I was at the School. I met Jim Routledge ('09-'17) here in Yarmouth, N.S., a few years ago, and prior to that, a chap by the name of Irwin in Halifax in the bond business, I believe. Other than that I cannot recall seeing any of the chaps I was at School with. You mentioned cousin Robert Cann ('14-'17). He works in Boston, Mass., and lives in Quincy, his address being: 19 Merrymount Terrace, Quincy, Mass., U.S.A.

H. D. Cann operates a large dairy farm near Yarmouth, N. S.

INTERESTING FACTS PERTAINING TO NAMES CONNECTED WITH THE SCHOOL

CHAPMAN HOUSE: Named in honour of Edward Chapman. The Rev. Doolittle, who founded the School in 1836, handed it over to Chapman in 1842. The College took over the School in 1845 and Chapman became Bursar. He remained connected with the School and College until his death in 1895 --- a period of 53 years.

WILLIAMS HOUSE: Named in honour of the Rev. James Williams. The College had closed the School in 1854. It was re-opened in 1857 with Williams as Rector who has often been called the Arnold of Canada. In 1863, upon being elected Bishop of Quebec, he resigned as Headmaster. In 1892, he dedicated the new School building which replaced the one destroyed by fire the previous year. It is interesting to note that the Office of Dedication which he used, was likewise used by his own son, the Right Rev. Lennox Williams ('70-'76), also Bishop of Quebec, at the Dedication Service of the Grant Hall Memorial Building (Preparatory School Building) in 1937. Michael Alexander, great-great-grandson, and James Williams, great-grandson, of the Rev. James Williams, are both now attending the School.

SMITH HOUSE: Named in honour of Dr. S. P. Smith who now resides at Jaquet River, N.B. He came to the School as junior master in 1910. Taking part in the First World War, he went overseas in 1916. He was appointed Headmaster in 1920 and under his leadership brought the School through the very difficult post-war years. Numbers increased and an all-round improvement, scholastic and financial, was quickly noted. In 1929, Bishop's University conferred the degree of D.C.L., Honoris Causis, upon him in recognition of his untiring efforts and services. This is, perhaps, the first honorary degree given to any of our Headmasters during their tenure of office. Dr. Smith resigned in 1931.

THE COLONEL GEORGE R. HOOPER MEMORIAL BURSARY: Col. Hooper attended the School from 1872-1879 and was a most generous benefactor. In 1905, through his generosity, a carpenter shop was provided at the School. He donated a prize for Mathematics in the Sixth Form and when he died, in 1926, he bequeathed his private library to the School. When his estate was wound up in 1943, the School was again generously remembered with a substantial sum of money.

THE F. W. ROSS INFIRMARY: Completed in 1936. The funds for its erection and equipment were generously donated by Mr. Ross of Quebec City. His sons, Donald and Harry, were at the School in '25-'31 and '28-'36 respectively.

THE GRANT HALL MEMORIAL BUILDING (THE PREPARATORY SCHOOL BUILDING): Erected in 1937 and dedicated at the Centenary Festival in memory of Grant Hall ('75-'80), Vice-president of the C.P.R., and, at the time of his death in 1934, Chairman of the Board of School Directors. Funds for the building were provided for by a campaign undertaken by the Old Boys. Grant Hall's son, W. M. Hall ('17-'24), killed during the last war in a flying accident with the R.C.A.F., and his three grandsons, G. H. Day ('33-'40), S. Day, ('37-'42), and B. G. Day ('40-'45) all attended the School. A portrait of Grant Hall, painted by Sir Wyly Grier, father of Col. C. G. M. Grier, former Headmaster, and presented to the School by Sir Wyly, hangs in the Dining Hall.

THE PETER HOLT MEMORIAL LIBRARY: Completed in 1951 and officially opened and dedicated at Thanksgiving. Funds for the building and equipment were provided for by Mrs. W. R. G. Holt, Montreal. Peter Holt ('35-'41), prefect in his last year at the School, was killed in the late war while serving with the R.C.A.F. He was shot down over Germany, May 30-31, 1943. He was posthumously awarded Operational Wings of the R.C.A.F. He is buried in Venlo Cemetery, Holland.

THE EDWIN RONALD BENNETT AND THE HENRY HARRISON BENNETT MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIPS: Both founded by Captain and the late Mrs. R. V. Bennett of Sackville, N.B., in memory of their sons who were killed in action in France, in August 1944. Ronald, a Major in the Black Watch, was at the School '30-'35, and Harrison, a Lieutenant first with the Black Watch and then with the Cameron Highlanders, Ottawa, attended the School '34-'38.

THE KENNETH HUGESSEN PRIZE FOR POETRY: Donated by the Hugessen family in memory of their son Kenneth ('36-'41) who died on Dec. 19, 1942, while attending McGill University. A collection of his poems written prior to his nineteenth birthday had been well reviewed.

THE L/CPL. GERRY HANSON PRIZE FOR HISTORY: Donated by the Hanson family in memory of their son Gerry ('36-'41) who, having reverted to the ranks to go overseas, was killed during the late war at Rimini in the Gothic Line, in Italy, on August 27, 1944.

THE WARREN HALE ESSAY PRIZE: Donated by the Hale family in memory of their son Warren ('35-'38) who was shot down over Holland in June 1944 while attempting to land two Dutch agents. He was a Flight Lieutenant in the R.C.A.F.

THE CAPT. J. MELVILLE GREENSHIELDS MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP: Founded in 1920 by the Greenshields family in memory of their son who attended the School '98-'02 and who was killed during the 1st World War in France. The scholarship is tenable at McGill.

THE WINDER CUP: Donated by Mrs. Winder in memory of her husband, Dr. J. B. Winder, ('90-'96) who for many years was the School doctor and who died in 1944. Their elder son, John, attended the School ('40-'48) and James is now in the Sixth Form. The winner of this Cup must be on all three 1st Teams and gain his Matriculation.

B.C.S. TANKARDS: Awarded to Boys who make outstanding contributions -- above the ordinary duties -- in any sphere of School life.

THE OTHER SIDE OF SCHOOL LIFE:

Remember when the School marched to Chapel as a Corps and had to break step crossing the Long Bridge (Walk or Pay Two Dollars), or else Break the Bridge in crossing it..... Remember when early morning DRILL was in vogue, and when a Fifth Former, with a very bad cold, struggling through the seven nouns in -OU that take -X (and adding a few extra for good measure) wound up with "AAHCHOU" and got 80 minutes.....Remember when the Fifth Former definitely didn't want to stand chatting to the master in the cloisters as the cigarette in the palm of his hand was beginning to burn the lining of his trouser's pocket..... Remember when the housemaster just had to put a stop to having his gramophone needles "snitched" ----- by putting his own used ones in a box just inside his door.....Remember when the line-up for leaves-out in the housemaster's room always resulted in a "run" on his favourite Virginia tobacco, and the old, dried leaves that acted as a cure ..... Remember when "Tyros" hockey crease, formed for the benefit of the English boys who were at the School during the War years, used to practise on the out-door rink, and one member was asked why he constantly "flopped" into the pile of snow at one end, and his answer: "I haven't learned yet how to turn around, so....". ..... Remember the year when the water failed to come into the buildings, and the whole school was divided into "walking" groups, and the youngest group had to go out "walking" again as its members didn't fully comprehend the purpose of the first walk.... ... Remember the sudden interest in music lessons after Mr. Sawdon had retired when Miss ----- came to the School to give private lesson..... Remember when magnesium used to be exploded to take night photographs, and half the cast of one production jumped off the stage in alarm --- bringing potted plants, etc., down with them --- since too large a charge of magnesium had been used; and then had to wait a considerable time until the smoke disappeared before a more successful shot was taken.....Remember the days when the Chapel organ had to be pumped by hand bellows, and the chaplain gave an unusually short sermon and the "pumper" had gone out for a quick "drag", which wasn't quick enough ..... Remember when the master was fully prepared to soak 120 minutes drill to every person he saw downstairs after lights-out, only to discover that an earthquake had taken place while he was crossing the fields and the fellows were carrying out orders in anticipation of a second tremor.....
